AGENDA

Welcome and Updates (Diane)

We are very pleased to introduce you to two new member-candidates: Jessica Rauhala, who is with us tonight and Margaret McBride. (See Margaret's bio below). We will vote on their admission to the Board at the outset of this meeting.

Updates and Reports:

- Storm water, VHC (Michael)
- Arlington County Civic Federation Meetings - (Anne)
- Update on GM Drive/Westwind Project – (Kutlay)
- Social events outlook (Jackie)
- Treasurer's Report and Membership Update – (Pam)
- Woodlawn Park updates – (Beth)

- Discussion of possible activities in 2021 (all)
- Other issues:

Elections in May for Executive Board and Delegates;

Speaker (Matt deFerranti) for General Meeting in April.

BIO:

Margaret McBride retired from the U.S. civil service in 2014 after 30-plus years as a public affairs officer for the Army. She's lived in the WWCA community for 30 years and helps with the Waycroft-Woodlawn park's upkeep. She's currently enrolled in the Arlington Master Naturalist program. Since retirement she's been active in the Ignatian Volunteer Corps; volunteered for two years at Arlington's Phoenix Bikes where youth are trained to be bike mechanics; participates in Arlington's Encore Learning; has audited classes at GMU; bicycles for utility and pleasure; and more.
